(May 26, 2009) TAMPA -- At a time when many businesses are keeping a tight hold on their finances, there are some companies out there who understand how far their dollars can go. The Hillsborough Education Foundation is honoring donors who have given so generously to enhance the learning experience for Hillsborough County's students and teachers through its grants programs.

The 2009 School Enrichment Reception, hosted by J.P.Morgan Chase, will feature first-hand accounts from teachers and students who have benefited from a Foundation grant. The particular programs to be addressed at the reception include: Classroom Grants, Hillsborough Reads tutoring, and Technology Match Grants.

The School Enrichment initiative is the newest undertaking by the Hillsborough Education Foundation. Under the initiative are a variety of programs that provide extra funding for classrooms and schools to enhance the learning experience and support academic success. Key focus areas include literacy, arts and culture, technology, and STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math).
